Tower News

Fairview students are well into the second semester and are busy studying. Many pupils think of the school library as a place for research alone. Numerous interesting books line the library shelves. The school library has recently acquired the following new books:

Alderman, Clifford. Stormy Knight - the life of Sir William Phips. The fascinating story of the 21st son of a poor family in Maine who achieved great fame in colonial America.

Brink, Carol. Snow in the River - a novel of three brothers who immigrated from Scotland to the Northwest in the 1890's - each with his own dream, his own love, his own destiny.

Fairview High School had 23 lettermen for the 1964 football season. Bruce Watson, a junior, had the highest point average among them with a 3.9 out of a possible 4.0. Jim Housh, senior, with a 3.6 was second highest, and Scott Matthews, senior, with 3.4 was third in line.

Band Presents Annual Concert

Marian Spelman, star of the 50-50 Club and the Paul Dixon Show, will appear with the concert band in the auditorium of Fairview on March 11-12. The Friday night concert will begin at 7:30 p.m.; the Saturday night concert at 8 p.m.

This is Miss Spelman's third appearance at Fairview within the past four years.

The program will consist of a medley of songs from The Sound of Music, as well as the songs "More" and "San Francisco."

Members of the band, Scotchettes, majorettes, colorguard, and cheerleaders will sell tickets, $1 each. The proceeds of the concert will go toward the Camp Fund of each student.

Students Uphold FHS Tradition

An editorial

Webster's Home Dictionary defines a sportsman as "any person who engages in sport, who conducts himself in a sportsman-like manner, accepting victory and defeat graciously."

This definition applies not only to the participants, but also to the spectators.

There is a common belief that all sports fans are rowdy. This is not so. The true sports fan respects the opposing team, his guests, his host, the officials, his team, coach, - and himself. This respect is a determining factor in the success or failure of a team.

"Booing" at anytime during a game is an indication of poor manners. The use of profanity has no place in high school athletics.

The officials at any athletic event are the most persecuted human beings in the world. Yes, they are human beings, and they do make mistakes. A "poor" call, however wrong it may seem, cannot be changed. The official holds a difficult position, and the fans have no right to make it any harder.

Over the years, the students at Fairview High School have tried to make the slogan "Friendly Fairview" a reality, a day to day pattern of living.

At every sports event there are always a few ill-mannered spectators whose unsportsman-like conduct should not be permitted to tarnish or destroy the concept of "Friendly Fairview."

The students at Fairview High School today, as did those in the past, take pride in living up to the principles of good sportsmanship.

Honesty Should Rule

Two of our greatest presidents, Lincoln and Washington share an image of basic honesty. It is difficult to imagine "Honest Abe" or George "I cannot tell a lie" Washington cheating or scheming to gain favors of any kind.

Although the American people idealize this characteristic of honesty in their forefathers, many students casually accept cheating on tests and homework as part of their school life. Students respect most laws concerning other people's property. They fail to realize that copying another student's homework or glancing across the aisle at someone's test paper is also stealing.

The traits that a person develops in his early life are usually carried into his adult life. High school students must decide by their actions now what kind of adult they will be tomorrow.

Students Show Scholarship

Membership in the National Honor Society, contrary to popular opinion, is not based on scholarship alone. Certainly, academic achievement is the first consideration by which a student is selected for membership. However, the qualities of leadership, service, and character are of as great importance as that of scholarship. Therefore, the student seeking the distinction acquired by being a member of the National Honor Society must strive for excellence in these combined qualities.

Support Patrons of Tower News

As is true of all newspapers, the life blood of our paper and its continued publication is dependent upon money received from the sale of advertising space.

Your patronage of the merchants who are advertising in the Fairview Tower News will express your appreciation and help merit their continued support.

From the Suggestion Box

The following were in the Suggestion Box. Mrs. Dorothy Culp, group adviser, presented them to the staff of the TOWER NEWS.

"The 'news' in the Tower News contains information that has already been announced, and when we receive the paper, the information seems like 'old stuff.'
Try to create more interesting articles that would catch the eye. Also, build up your articles more with detailed photographs. Thank you."

The above letter to the staff of the Tower News states the writer's opinion of the articles which have appeared in the paper. Some of these complaints may be legitimate; but if the members of the student body realized the problems facing the journalism department, they might understand our situation.
The sole purpose of a high school paper is to promote and to publicize student participation in school affairs, governed always by the rules and regulations of good journalism.

Some persons have compared the articles which have appeared in the Tower News with those which appeared in last year's Muscle, the publication of Varsity "F". The Muscle represented the members of Varsity "F"; the Tower News is the official organ for the student body and faculty of Fairview High School; therefore, it has a much greater responsibility to its readers.

Pictures certainly improve a school paper; however, each picture costs $1.50. Space and the financial budget of the Tower News are both limited.
It is impossible for a school newspaper to print spot news as does a daily paper because all copy must be submitted to the printer ten days before the paper is distributed at school.

The staff of the Tower News appreciates receiving letters which are sincerely written and which express the writer's honest opinion.

"Why not have an article on Fairview's gymnastic team?"
Thank you."

For the person who suggested an article on the gymnastic team, thank you; see page three in this issue.

Girls I View

Well, here I am girls, to save your bedraggled love lives. As everyone knows, the males of this world are notorious free-loaders. So, look alive girls. When he asks for your American History outline, ask him if he would rather you would do his for him. When he asks to borrow a quarter in the cafeteria, offer him your lunch. Confidentially, girls, I think you may have to shape up a bit. If there is one thing boys cannot stand, it is the girl who is obviously trying to set a world speed record with her jaws. Another thing that "gripes the souls of men" is the new spectrum look. I know a "guy" who dated a brunette, asked a blonde to go steady with him, and gave his ring to a redhead. Strange as it may seem, all three were the same girl.

A wise woman will play on her "guy's" sympathy. If you have a problem (it can't be too big) ask him for his opinion. A painful expression, a sob, and a bounding gratitude at his advice—be it good or bad—works wonders. If you have no problems, manufacture one. Well this is thirty for this time, girls.

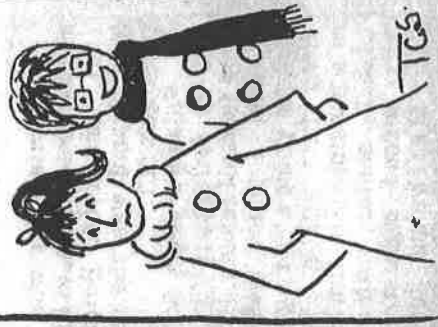

... and when I told her what he told me about what he told her... well ... and...

... and after I bought that expensive dress—here she is with one just like it, so I... and...

Sigh... Wasn't that an exciting game !!

Seen' Double? A-Okay

Do you think you have been seeing double lately? Do not run to the nearest optometrist. Do not "panic"; this apparent double vision is normal at Fairview High School because there are twins from eight families attending school.

The look - alikes are Sharen and Karen Berry, Cindy and Sandy Haney, Mike and Pat Tolle, Larry and Gary Marshall, sophomores; Janet and Jayne Jacobs, freshmen. The other twins are Joan and Jo Ann Oiler, Dan and Darlene Pohlbel, sophomores; and Linda and Larry Buck, seniors.

A shared birth date does not necessarily mean the same interests. Darlene practices cheerleading (she's a reserve cheerleader) while Dan shoots his guns and hunts. Janet collects stamps, but Jayne accumulates coins. Mike strums his guitar, and Pat picks out tunes on the organ.

Boys I View

What are boys made of? "Snips and snails and puppy-dog tails!" We girls know better than that! Most likely, a boy is 10% lovable, 40% exasperating, and 50% unpredictable! For instance... Those bleach blonde sheepdogs would howl if we did anything to our hair. A Clairrol boy invariably likes the natural look - on his girl friend, that is! Or what about the boys who love our sweet femininity? Yet they expect us to know the life-long batting averages of all the league ball players.

Oh, but don't boys make us feel wonderfully fragile when they open doors and carefully help us into cars? Just wait until the Dr. Jekyll becomes Mr. Hyde behind the wheel! Oh well, that's one way to lose a girlfriend...

And then there are the Casanovas who swear of their true love! They would die for us! They would become hollow shells if they lost us. They would even take us out if they weren't saving for a new fender! See what I mean?

Diet Insures Good Health

Life in 1965 is an exciting experience. We have more challenges and problems than any previous year. We have more people to compete with and greater things for which to compete. It is a strain for both our bodies and minds to keep up with the "happy pace" of living.

We can exert ourselves a little more if we are physically healthy. Eating a balanced diet is the surest way to health. Forten thousand years milk has been the basic food of mankind. Over the centuries, surviving many fads and fashions, it increased in importance as scientists learned more about the human body. It does not seem likely now that milk will soon be supplanted by "Space Age concentrates."

It is our most nearly perfect food, supplying something of every food requirement.
