Batman Out Rates Superman!

Students of Fairview High are noted for their high scholastic standing.

They do not spend so much time studying as one would imagine. Watching television plays an important part in a student's life.

When questioned as to the choice of programs the following proved true: topping the students' list of preferred shows in the well-known "Batman". It had over twice as many votes as the next highest on the list, "Superman".

The top-ten preferred programs are "Batman," "Superman," "The Man From U.N.C.L.E.," "Get Smart," "Gidget," "Where the Action Is," "Peyton Place," "Mike Douglas," "The Fugitive," and "Be-witched".

As for individual stand-

Also on the bill are Mrs. Earl Grieder, a singer. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Burgan Chrisman on piano. Mr. Ray Schaufuss will play several piano arrangements.

There will be a men's octet under the direction of Mr. C.W. Detrick. Mr. and Mrs. Al Cimprich will perform a song and dance act.

The Mother Singers in the FHS area will sing a medley of tunes. Mothers from Loos Elementary School will entertain under the direction of Mrs. Carl Woessner.

Tired of such courses as physics, French IV, or Biology II? If so, why not investigate photography, a new course offered this semester at Fairview.

The objective of this course is to teach students the basic fundamentals of photography. This includes information on the operation of different cameras, and the procedure used in the dark room. Mr. R. Douglas Reynolds is the instructor.

Girls taking this course are Alice Nierenburg, Margaret Wehrley, Margaret Greenfield, Barbara Solnik, Penny Ackley, and Pat Jessee.

Mr. Reynolds says his main purpose in teaching this course, "is to up grade picture taking."

Suzi Warren, sophomore, won't miss the "Beatle Cartoons". Jan Keys, junior, lives for "Long Hot Summer," and Fred Haines makes a habit of watching "Hullabaloo".

"Gidget" was very popular among the girls questioned.

The interview uncovered the fact that freshmen and sophomores find more time to watch the "reilly" than do the majority of juniors and seniors.

Of the four classes, freshman boys have the most time for their viewing and senior boys have the least amount of time.

Ninth-grader Chris Stambough spends approximately four hours a day watching television, but his fellow frosh Steve

Clubs Sponsor Unique Dance

Attention girls! You are being given a second chance. There is to be another turnabout.

Tri-Thena, Nobles, and Varsity "F" will present "Hawaiian Paradise", Saturday, March 18, from 8:30 - 11:30 p.m. The dance will be held in the halls and cafeteria of FHS.

The dance features two bands. "Tom and the Tempests" will play at Third and Main for those who wish to frug and jerk. "The Guardsmen," a folk singer group, will entertain in the cafeteria.

Tri-Thena's president Bonnie Bloom, Nobles' president of Varsity "F", Dwight Woessner, have appointed nine committees.

Glenda Gillenwater and Gail Dunn lead the publicity committee. Ticket chairmen are Karen Hendrickson and Trisha Lewis. Pat Dryden serves as program chairman. Kathy Kirby is in charge of refreshments. The boys clubs will build the backdrops for the two bands.

Martie Hoover will act as overall chairman of decorations. Serving under Martie are Linda Poynter as chairman of hall decorations, Karen Flayler as table decorations. Chairman, Kathi Smith as cafeteria decorations chairman, and Judy Golde as favours chairman.

Attire for the dance is dressy-sport. Tickets sell for $1.50 per couple and may be purchased from members of the three clubs.

Smith devotes only an hour and a half to it. Sophomore Marlene Eldridge spends four to five hours a day in front of the "idiot box". Ron Messer can manage only a half-hour of television a day, and Jean Ramsey averages three to four hours a week.

Nearly everyone interviewed claimed to watch the "Sunday Night Movie". "Those movies are usually pretty good," was the reply of many.

Shows such as "Peyton Place," "Dr. Kildare," and "Ben Casey", which demand that the viewers watch every installment, scored lower at FHS than in the national ratings. This fact possibly shows a more irregular viewing pattern among high school students.

The Fairview Chapter of the National Honor Society will induct thirty-nine new students as a ceremony on Feb. 28 at 8:30 a.m. in the auditorium of FHS.

These thirty-nine honored students will take the oath of membership at this time. The total membership of the National Honor Society now stands at seventy-three.

Parents of all members of the National Honor Society have been invited to attend the affair.

Reed Putnam, president of Honor Society, will introduce the guest speaker, Dr. Harold Boda. Mr. Boda is assistant superintendent of Dayton

Frosh-Soph Receive Honors Assembly

On March 28, Mrs. Frances Kehoe, English teacher, will present a similar program for the freshmen.

Choir Enters Music Contest

Students Should Act

American citizens are privileged to take an active role in their government. They exercise this privilege by voting, corresponding with elected representatives, and even by demonstrating.

Many Americans neither care about, nor qualify to assume their role in government. Such people are content to let the world pass them by while they live and work in their own little shells. Their only association with the government is when they gripe because their taxes are too high or because they don't like this policy or that.

Since many life patterns are formed during high school, some Fairview students are already doomed to a life of isolation; while others, even now, take part in provocative discussion of domestic and foreign policies. The latter are to be commended for setting a pattern that will serve them well when the time comes for them to assume the privileges and responsibilities of citizenship. In advice to the former, it is relatively easy to become intelligent, informed citizens. By merely setting aside a short time each day for reading a newspaper or news magazine, students will be better prepared to assume the responsibilities and reap the benefits of citizenship.

People Must Communicate

The art of communicating is the basis for all social relationships. Biologically speaking, we, as members of the species homo sapiens, have developed this art to a point unparalleled in the animal kingdom.

Unfortunately, we, as functioning members of the human race, have failed in many of our attempts to communicate. Problems ranging from not having the car Saturday night to the current war in Vietnam can often be traced to breakdowns in communications. The process of communication involves speaking, listening, and writing; however, the most important factor in all of these is thought. In order to communicate efficiently, one must know what he wishes to say. He must then carefully choose the proper words to express his idea. By using this method he eliminates all possibility of his being misunderstood.

Without effective communication, there can be no understanding. Without understanding, there can be no peace.

To publish a newspaper costs money. In this respect, the Fairview Tower News is no different from any other paper. The sale of advertising space to business people helps defray the cost of publication.

Art Institute Provides Answer To Cultural Needs Of Students

On Sunday, March 20, the Dayton Civic Ballet will present a dance, "Education of a Dancer."

Every Tuesday evening, all the art exhibits are open to public viewing from 7:30 to 10:00.

At 8:30, a lecture tour of the galleries starts. One does not have to travel to New York, Rome, or Paris for his cultural needs. At the Art Institute, right here in Dayton, Ohio, one has examples of the various fields of art at his finger tips.

What is the cost for all of this? "Man doth not live by bread only."

He must feed his mind as well as his body. Therefore, it is desirable to maintain an equal balance of one's leisure time. The Dayton Art Institute, located at 405 West Riverview Avenue, provides the answer to one's cultural needs.

Ohio contemporary painters' and sculptors' shows may be enjoyed at the Art Institute at the present time.

Every Sunday afternoon various Dayton area concert ensembles perform at the Institute.

Absolutely nothing! Can you afford to miss it? Indeed not!

Family groups, individual parties, or a lone individual could spend an enjoyable evening or afternoon at the Art Institute, browsing around looking at the various exhibits.

S.C. Answers Question

Suggestion Box

Student Council reports an increase in the number of useful and constructive suggestions submitted this year to the Suggestion Box.

The Tower News is happy to co-operate with Student Council in answering some of these suggestions.

"Where does the money from Fine Arts go?" asked Senior Carol Scherer. "The collection might be larger if students knew what they helped to pay for."

ANSWER:

According to Mrs. Dorothy Culp, Group Counselor, money from the Fine Arts collection will be used to build a stone wall, similar to the one at the corner of Hillcrest and Philadelphia, around the edge of the grounds, and thus elevate the level of the entire lawn and discourage students from walking on the grass. For a general description of the functions of the Fine Arts Committee, see the Student Handbook.

"Besides just selling sweatshirts every year, I suggest you sell jackets with school colors. This way students who are not in a club such as Varsity F could still have jackets." — Larry Ulm.

ANSWER:

First of all, let us make it clear that Student Council does not handle sweatshirt sales. Aside from such conveniences as Briefolios, book-covers, decals, and Birthday Calendars, we do not sell anything for pure profit. Those things which we do sell barely cover our operating expenses. Unlike that of other schools, the FHS Student Council is not a money-making organization.

Secondly, at FHS, each of the five service clubs makes its own jackets available to its members. These jackets, especially the blue and gold Varsity F jacket, are displayed as a sign of pride—that these people have in their school, and pride that their school has in them.

"Why don't we have a wrestling room, ropes to climb, one good wrestling mat? There is no set of weights, no place to practice."

ANSWER:

When the new gymnasium facilities are completed, practice rooms and similar facilities will be provided by remodeling and renovating the present gym. Many of the features you mention, though, already exist, such as ropes and weights. The Boosters' Club gave us a very fine new mat, and uniforms three years ago.

So What!

Attempts by man and wife to reconcile one another fail. Dudley tries to "strengthen" his relationship with Colin, the two separate in a scene that is at once brutal and compassionate.

In a world where youth are searching of identity, the timely, brutally sensitive "Leather Boys" is a film to be seen.

Technically, the film is not a masterpiece, but it is, at least, well enough executed to serve as a worthy vehicle for the story's message.

The photography is characterized by the realism that is typical of many of the recent English successes.

Bulldogs Meet Bison In Tourney Battle

February 26, at Fairmont West, will open the all important basketball tournament for Fairview. Their opponent will be the Belmont Bison.

The last meeting between the dogs and the Bison saw a Dog victory, 74-66, in overtime.

Fairview tripped Carroll 85-71 in a game that was decided in the first quarter. Scoring honors for Fairview went to Ron Neff, who had 17 points.

Carroll was outscored 24-14 in the first quarter and then the Bulldogs coasted to an easy victory.

Fairview dropped a big one to rival Meadowdale 58-57. The third quarter saw the Lions outscore the Bulldogs 18 to 8 and take a 46-39 lead into the final quarter.

With 7 seconds remaining in the game and Fairview trailing by one, Lonnn Jackson took a jump shot that missed; John Pichler tried to tip it in; but the ball rolled in and out, and the gun went off ending the game. The fans poured out on the floor only to realize that a foul had been called and Pichler was at the line for 2 shots. Both were missed and Meadowdale won 58-57.

High point man in the game was Meadowdale's Mike Pratt with 23. High for Fairview was Bob McCowan, who hit for 14.

DJ's Oppose Faculty of FHS

WONE disc jockeys Eddie Gale, Shadow Jackson, Sonny Ledet, and two station engineers took on members of the Fairview faculty in a basketball game, in the FHS gymnasium, Wednesday, Feb. 23.

The game was a junior class project. John Ittleson, junior class vice president was in charge.

Mr. Don Barger, varsity basketball coach, Mr. Dave Palsgrove, reserve basketball coach, and Mr. Phil Prather, freshman basketball coach, Mr. Ron Bradley, varsity football coach, Mr. John Koenig, chemistry teacher, Mr. John B. Maxwell, drivers' training teacher, and Mr. Marshall Rosensweet, teacher, of speech and dramatics constituted the FHS team.

The Bulldogs season's highlights were victories over Belmont, Miamisburg, Patterson, plus the big 60-59 victory over Xenia which was the Bucanear's first home loss in 20 games.

The Bulldogs longest win streak was six games spanning from December 17 to January 14. The home court advantage worked for Fairview; the FHS students saw 7 wins and no losses. All the losses absorbed by Fairview have been in City League play.

Bob McCowan leads the squad with a 20 point average. Bob has hit a dazzling 51% from the floor. Ron Neff leads the team in foul shooting, hitting 45 of 58 for 78%.

Lonnn Jackson's 11 point average is second on the well-balanced team. John Pichler has shot 94 times and made 59, for an unbelievable 62% from the field.

As a team, Fairview averages 72 points a game while allowing its opponents only 60 points. It has out-rebounded its opponents 625 to 564, and from the field has hit 47%, and 66% from the foul line.

In the errors department, the Bulldogs have committed 119 turnovers for an average of 9 a game.

JV's Finish Good Season

The reserve season came to a close at Fairmont east on Saturday, February 19. The season had many highlights and some disappointments.

The Bulldog reserves tangled with Carroll's Patriots on Saturday, February 2. The young Dogs got off to a slow start but finished strong in winning 57-46.

In city league action, at the U. of D. Fieldhouse, the reserves fought hard in a losing effort against Meadowdale's young Lions. In that ball game the reserves played against one of the best reserve teams in the area.

Mr. David Palsgrove, reserve coach, was proud of his team's hustle and desire. "The team never gave up, which is a sign of a good ball club," remarked coach Palsgrove.

The team lost to Springfield North, Roth, Patterson, Celina, Wilbur Wright, Xenia and Dunbar.

A big highlight of the season was an over-time victory over the Belmont Reserves. The score was tied 54-54 at the end of regular play. At the end of the overtime period, the Fairview reserves were on top 58-56.

Another big victory was a double-overtime victory over Roosevelt. The final score was 65-63. Other victories included wins over Miamisburg, Lemon Monroe, Stivers and Kiser.

In only one game, Patterson, were the reserves soundly beaten. In the rest of their losses, there was only at most four points difference.

"Calling station WA8-RIX." That is the call number of the Fairview Amateur Radio Club.

President Jan Kahn reports big things in store for the club. Presently, the installation of general coverage antennae in room 114 is the main interest. With the aid of the Board of Education, two short wave radios are going to be installed.

At the meeting, usually held on Tuesdays, the first twenty minutes is devoted to business. The rest of the time is used for any electrical project.

Occasionally, some of the members contact other cities by means of short wave. The farthest state reached thus far has been Texas.

The "ham" radio club is offering a course in transistors and in code. Mr. Howard Schumacher, physics teacher, is adviser. Serving on the executive board along with Jan Kahn and Randy Durham, vice-president; Buddy Kahn, sec.-treas.; and Gary Terburg, sgt. at arms.

Community Project Council Comments

by Murray Horowitz

The community-minded Student Council of FHS has undertaken this month to have the first truly community calendar in the area. Of course, it will remain a Birthday Calendar, but in addition, we would welcome the support of community merchants and organizations. Many such calendars, which have been sent to the group counseling office, list dates for meetings of Optimist and Kiwanis clubs, church events, and other community events. So help yourself, your school, and your community; let's all pitch in and make this

Because it is now second semester, you may want to get some book covers for your new books; well, we still have some left.
